EXPLANATORY NOTES

Introduction

This issue of Divisional Statistics is the ninth of a series, and is designed to provide users with a range of statistical information about geographic areas and regions of South Australia.

Geographic Areas

2. The areas used in this publication conform to the hierarchical classification of spatial units set out in the Australian Standard Geographical Classification, Edition 3 (ASGC) (1216.0).

3. Statistical Divisions are designed to be relatively homogeneous regions characterised by identifiable social and economic links between the inhabitants and between the economic units within the region, under the unifying influence of one or more major towns or cities. Capital city divisions are predominantly urban in character and the boundaries are delineated to contain the anticipated urban development of the capital cities (and associated urban centres) for a period of at least twenty years.

4. Subdivisions are portions of Divisions and are defined on much the same basis. Subdivisions aggregate to Divisions.

5. Statistical Local Areas (SLAs) are used in the presentation of small area statistics, and replace local government areas (LGAs) which were used in previous editions of this publication.

6. SLAs correspond, in the majority of cases, to legal LGAs. The main exception is where the boundaries of one or more statistical subdivisions cut across a legal LGA, the legal LGA must be split into two or more parts, each of which falls into the relevant statistical subdivision and forms an SLA. In South Australia, Enfield (C) is the only LGA to be split in this way.

Estimated Resident Population

7. The estimated resident population (ERP) series is compiled according to the place of usual residence of the population. An explanation of the conceptual basis for population estimates is given in the ABS Information Paper Population Estimates: An Outline of the New Conceptual Basis of ABS Population Estimates (3216.0).

8. The ERP at census date is arrived at by:

- (a) adjusting the census counts (actual location basis) to obtain counts on the basis of usual residence (census counts, place of usual residence);
- (b) adjusting the census counts, place of usual residence, for census under-enumeration; and
- (c) adding to the adjusted census counts, place of usual residence, the number of South Australian residents estimated to have been temporarily overseas at the time of the census.

1986 Census of Population and Housing

9. The census data included in this publication counts people where they actually were on Census night, and not where they usually lived.

10. A household is a person living alone, or two or more persons who live or eat together (regardless of their relationship to one another), in a private dwelling. In the 1986 Census, a caravan etc. in a caravan park was treated as a household for the purposes of family classification. A group household is one which comprised two or more unrelated persons.

11. A family in the Census is constituted of usual members of a household who are related and living in a private dwelling or a caravan etc. in a caravan park.

12. Labour Force Status. For 1986 Census purposes persons aged 15 years and over were classified as:

- (a) Employed if they;
 - (i) worked for payment or profit, or as an unpaid helper in a family business during the week prior to Census night;
 - (ii) had a job from which they were on leave or temporarily absent; or
 - (iii) were on strike or stood down temporarily.
- (b) Unemployed if they did not have a job, but were actively looking for work.
- (c) In the labour force if they were employed or unemployed as defined in (a) and (b) above.
- (d) Not in the labour force if they did not work and were not actively seeking work, for example, retired persons or full-time students.

13. The labour force participation rate is the percentage of all persons aged 15 years and over who were in the labour force. The unemployment rate is the percentage of the total labour force which is unemployed.

Dwellings

14. For census purposes, dwellings are classified as:

- (a) private dwellings – normally houses, flats, or part of a house, but also may include boats, or caravans on residential allotments. Occupied private dwellings are those which are lived in on Census night.
- (b) Caravan etc. in caravan park in the 1986 Census included caravans, tents, cabins and campervans which were classified as dwellings if occupied on Census night. Note that this classification is separate and distinct from that of 'private dwelling'.
- (c) Non-private dwellings include hotels, motels, guest-houses, gaols, religious and charitable institutions, defence establishments, hospitals and other communal dwellings. Note that for census purposes occupants of a non-private dwelling were provided with Personal Forms, not Household Forms and were not treated as either family or household members.

15. Nature of occupancy concerns the type of tenure of a private dwelling e.g. whether rented, owned or being purchased, and therefore does not include occupants of caravans etc. in caravan parks or non-private dwellings.

Random Error in Population Census Data

16. No reliance should be placed on cells of three or less since possible response and processing errors have greatest impact on small cells. Some small cells have been randomly altered to zero, and hence caution should be exercised in assuming that in any such area there are no persons having that specified characteristic.

SLA Indicators

17. The SLA indicators in Table 1 have been derived from detailed information, and can be used to make quick comparisons between the characteristics of different areas. Some indicators are inter-related. For example, a relatively high median age is often associated with a relatively low proportion of males, since females tend to live longer than males, and therefore outnumber them in the older populations.

18. The SLA indicators provided are intended to be used only as a guide to some of the differences and similarities between geographic areas.

Schools

19. These statistics relate to all schools and full-time students in primary and secondary education in South Australia. Special schools and correspondence schools are included while pre-school centres and classes, adult education centres, and coaching establishments are not. Business colleges are also excluded.

20. South Australian statistics are compiled from collections conducted, in co-operation with the Australian Education Council School Statistics Committee, by the South Australian Education Department (government series) and the Commonwealth Department of Employment, Education and Training (non-government series).

Building Approvals

21. Statistics of building work approved are compiled from:

- (a) permits issued by local or other government authorities in areas subject to building control by those authorities; and
- (b) contracts let or day labour work authorised by Commonwealth, State, semi-government and local government authorities.

22. Major building activity which takes place in areas not subject to the normal administrative approval processes (e.g. buildings on remote mine sites) is also included.

23. The statistics cover all approved new residential buildings irrespective of value and all other building projects valued at $10,000 or more.

24. A building is defined as a rigid, fixed and permanent structure which has a roof. Its intended purpose is primarily to house people, plant, machinery, vehicles, goods or livestock. An integral feature of a building's design, to satisfy its intended use, is the provision for regular access by persons.

25. A dwelling unit is defined as a self-contained suite of rooms, including cooking and bathing facilities and intended for long-term residential use. Units (whether self-contained or not) within buildings offering institutional care, such as hospitals, or temporary accommodation, such as motels, hostels and holiday apartments are not defined as dwelling units. The value of units of this type is included in the appropriate category of 'non-residential buildings' approved.

26. A residential building is defined as a building predominantly consisting of one or more dwelling units. Residential buildings can be either houses or other residential buildings.

- (a) A house is defined as a detached building predominantly used for long term residential purposes and consisting of only one dwelling unit. Thus detached granny flats and detached dwelling units such as caretaker's residences associated with non-residential buildings are defined as houses for the purpose of these statistics.
- (b) An other residential building is defined as a building which is predominantly used for long term residential purposes and which contains (or has attached to it) more than one dwelling unit (e.g. includes townhouses, duplexes, apartment buildings, etc.).

27. Values are derived from approval documents and represent the estimated value, when completed, of building work (excluding the value of land and landscaping). Site preparation costs are included.

Agricultural Production

28. Statistics in this publication are derived from the annual Integrated Agricultural Commodity Census (IACC), conducted throughout Australia at 31 March, which collects data from establishments with agricultural activity, and refer to aggregations of operations at single specific locations. An owner or occupier who works more than one location is normally required to report details for each location. However, where the locations are near to one another and are in effect worked as one establishment, a composite return is obtained and is treated as covering a single establishment in the district in which the main location is situated.

29. The ABS excludes from the census those establishments which make only a small contribution to overall agricultural production. From 1986-87 the scope of the census is establishments undertaking agricultural activity having an estimated value of agricultural operations (EVAO) of $20,000 or more. The scope of previous censuses was establishments undertaking agricultural activity having an EVAO of $2,500 or more and this change means that the current census results are not directly comparable to previous census results.

30. Area of sown pasture includes lucernes, clovers, grasses and medics at 31 March 1987, irrespective of when they were sown. It excludes cereals e.g. oats which were grazed or cut.

31. Milk cattle are those cattle kept mainly for the production of milk or cream for sale.

32. Meat cattle are those cattle kept mainly for the production of meat.

Retail Industry

33. The 1985-86 Retail Census included all establishments classified to Subdivision 48 (Retail Trade) of the 1983 edition of the Australian Standard Industrial

Classification (ASIC) except Shoe Repairers (ASIC class 4846), Electric Appliance Repairers n.e.c. (ASIC class 4857) and Bread and Milk Vendors (ASIC classes 4878 and 4879). Excluded from the census because of difficulties in ensuring adequate coverage were retailing from non-fixed premises such as occasional market stalls, independent van sales, some types of door-to-door selling and vending machine sales.

34. Establishments at 30 June. The number of retail establishments in operation at 30 June 1986. It does not include the number of separately located administrative offices and ancillary units.

35. Persons employed at 30 June. Employees plus proprietors and partners working on a full or part-time basis, including those working at separately located administrative offices and ancillary units. Unpaid helpers are excluded.

36. Wages and salaries. Gross earnings of all employees before taxation and other deductions. Earnings of employees working at separately located administrative offices and ancillary units are included. Drawings of working proprietors and partners of unincorporated enterprises are excluded. Working proprietors of incorporated enterprises are considered to be employees.

37. Turnover. Sales of goods (retail and wholesale) and all other operating revenue from outside the enterprise.

38. Further details are available in Retail Industry : Small Area Statistics, South Australia (8623.4).

Manufacturing Establishments

39. The periodic manufacturing census is conducted as a component of the ABS integrated economic statistics information system. The results are therefore comparable with economic data collections undertaken annually for the mining, electricity and gas industries and periodically for the wholesale trade, retail trade, construction and transport industries.

40. Manufacturing, as specified in Division C of the ASIC, broadly relates to the physical or chemical transformation of materials or components into new products, whether the work is performed by power-driven machines or by hand.

41. In accordance with the ASIC the basic census unit (referred to as the establishment) in respect of which statistics are collected in integrated economic censuses is in general a unit covering all the operations carried on under the ownership of one enterprise (business) at a single physical location. For manufacturing censuses, a manufacturing establishment is thus predominantly engaged in manufacturing activities, but the data collected for it cover (subject to the exception mentioned below) all activities at the location, namely:

- (a) the manufacturing activities primary to the industry class to which the establishment is classified;
- (b) any other manufacturing activities (i.e. production of commodities primary to another manufacturing industry class);
- (c) any selling and distribution activities connected with the commodities manufactured; and

- (d) any non-manufacturing activities (e.g. selling of goods not manufactured by the establishment, extraction of raw materials for use by the establishment).

42. The exception relates to locations where the subsidiary activities exceed a specified value ($4.3 million for 1984-85) in terms of sales and transfers out of goods and services during the year. These locations are treated for statistical purposes as two or more establishments corresponding to the various kinds of activity carried on.

43. The establishment statistics also include data relating to separately located administrative offices and ancillary units (such as head offices, storage premises and manufacturers sales branches or sales offices) serving the establishment and forming part of the enterprise which owns and operates the establishment. It should be noted however that sales branches or offices which distribute to customers from stocks held by them are classified to the wholesale industry.

44. The information shown in the table for the various items defined below refers to establishments which operated at any time during the year.

45. Establishments at 30 June. The number of establishments in operation at 30 June relates to manufacturing establishments as such and does not include the numbers of separately located administrative offices and ancillary units.

46. Employment. Working proprietors and employees on payroll, including those working at separately located administrative offices and ancillary units.

47. Wages and salaries. The wages and salaries of all employees of the establishment, including those working at separately located administrative offices and ancillary units. Drawings of working proprietors are excluded.

48. Turnover. Sales (exclusive of excise and sales tax) of goods, whether produced by the establishment or not, plus transfers out of goods to other establishments of the same enterprise, plus bounties and subsidies on production, plus all other operating revenue from outside the enterprise (such as commission, repair and service revenue and rent, leasing and hiring revenue), plus capital work done for own use, or for rental or lease. Receipts from interest, royalties, dividends, and the sale of fixed tangible assets are excluded.

49. Value added. Turnover plus increase (or less decrease) in the value of stocks, less purchases, transfers in and selected expenses.

50. Further details are available in Manufacturing Establishments : Small Area Statistics, South Australia (8203.4).

Local Government Finance

51. These statistics are derived from the Standardised System of Local Government Finance Statistics (SLGFS). More detailed statistics are contained in SLGFS which is available on microfiche or magnetic tape.

52. Ordinary services. Includes the general functions of local government authorities, but excludes details of their trading activities such as electricity undertakings.

53. Outlay from revenue and loans includes:

- (a) Debt charges, levies and donations. Includes principal and interest payments on long-term debt, compulsory levies paid to government and voluntary payments to non-profit organisations.
- (b) General administration. Includes only those expenses relating to council members, executive staff and 'head office' type expenses.
- (c) Community amenities. Provision of council houses, town and regional planning, sanitary and garbage disposal, urban drainage, street cleaning, effluent drainage, public conveniences and cemeteries.
- (d) Recreation and culture. Provision of facilities and support of organisations concerned with leisure time activities and sport, support of the performing arts and preservation of the national estate.

54. Revenue and loan receipts include:

- (a) Rates and ex-gratia receipts. Includes gross rates levied less remissions, plus subsidies and penalties, and revenue in lieu of rates for exempt properties.
- (b) Charges. Revenue from sales of goods and services, and rent from properties.
- (c) Government grants. Includes Commonwealth and State Government specific purpose grants and Commonwealth general purpose grants under the personal income tax sharing arrangement.

- (d) Other revenue. Includes licences, fees and fines, interest received, sale of land and fixed assets, contributions and reimbursements received.

Related Publications

55. Current publications produced by the ABS are listed in the Catalogue of Publications, Australia (1101.0). The ABS also issues, on Tuesdays and Fridays, a Publications Advice (1105.0) which lists publications to be released in the next few days. The Catalogue and Publications Advice are available from any ABS office.

(a) A legal local government area represents the whole undivided geographical area of responsibility of an incorporated local government authority.

(b) At date of effect.

CHANGES IN STATISTICAL AREA BOUNDARIES

Effective from 1 July 1985, there have been a number of changes to South Australia's statistical area boundaries, as outlined below.

- The Adelaide Statistical Division (ASD) now includes the whole of Willunga (DC) and excludes those small parts of Onkaparinga (DC) and Gumeracha (DC) which were previously included.
- The North Eastern Statistical Subdivision within the ASD is abolished and the Para Subdivision, renamed Northern Subdivision, now includes the whole of Salisbury (C), Tea Tree Gully (C) and part of Enfield (C).
- Within the Outer Adelaide Statistical Division, the Barossa Subdivision now includes the whole of Gumeracha (DC), Onkaparinga Subdivision includes the whole of Onkaparinga (DC) and Mount Barker (DC) and Fleurieu Subdivision excludes those parts of Willunga (DC) and Mount Barker (DC) now in ASD and Onkaparinga Subdivision respectively.
- In the Northern Statistical Division, Whyalla Subdivision now consists entirely of Whyalla (C). The new Lake Gilles Subdivision comprises all of the unincorporated area formerly in Whyalla Subdivision. The Flinders Ranges Subdivision now includes the whole of Mount Remarkable (DC), part of which was previously included in the Pirie Subdivision and Port Augusta (C), parts of which were previously included in the Pirie and Whyalla Subdivisions.
